

Dear Sandra,

Created by Bridgett and Doc Schneider in 1999, Random Acts of Genealogical Kindness was made to bring together members of the genealogy community from all around the world. Sadly in 2011, the website went offline, however, in tribute to Doc and Bridgett and the efforts of thousands of volunteers, we were inspired to create a place for researchers to come together and collaborate.

Today, at Mocavo, we are excited to announce the launch of Genealogy Karma. Modeled after Random Acts of Genealogical Kindness, if you're looking for records or photos from an ancestor who lived far away, we will connect you with volunteers who can do this research for you in other cities. Likewise, if you'd like to give back and have a little time to donate, you can sign up as a volunteer.

To Request Help

1. Simply click on "I need to request help."
2. Select the county for your request.
3. Create a short title and add a detailed explanation of your request.
4. Tag your request to help others discover it. For example, you can tag your request as "photo", "birth record", or "tombstone".
5. You can also select to be notified if someone replies to your request.
6. Post your query.

To Volunteer

1. Simply click on "I want to be a volunteer."
2. Select the counties that you can help with.
3. Submit your information.
4. We will then let you know when there are opportunities to help other genealogists in your area.
