"I just found a website that is very invasive. The website www.spokeo.com gives a person the ability, for just a few dollars, to have access to info on your photos, bio, email, wealth, and social network and more. Just type in your name... you'll see the results. To delete your name from their database click on the "Privacy" link at the bottom, right on the screen (hard to see at first glance) and follow the directions. That worked for us. .."
